

Media Release and Use of Photographs and Names

Throughout your membership, the media may visit FSC of Bloomington practices or special events. FSC of Bloomington may also wish to use your child's photograph or name for promotional and educational reasons, such as in brochures and newsletters, on the FSC of Bloomington Web site, on the FSC of Bloomington bulletin board in the skater's room, or in local newspapers or television reports. No home address or telephone number will appear with such work, except for password-protected Web pages. Note that photos that include multiple, unidentified skaters may be included on the FSC of Bloomington Web site without prior written permission. We will not use your child's name and/or individual photo without your written permission.

Please sign and complete each of the following three sections stating whether FSC of Bloomington and the media have permission to use your child's photograph and/or full name for promotional and educational purposes.
